Perspectives on Pastoralism Film Festival

This Film Festival seeks to deepen understanding of how diverse peoples across the world gain their livelihoods from extensive livestock husbandry. The relationships of pastoralists, their animals and their food production systems reflect an intimate intertwining of culture, economy and ecology in highly variable environments such as drylands and mountainous areas.

The festival, organised by members of the Coalition of European Lobbies for Eastern African Pastoralism (CELEP), showcases films meant to spark dialogue and inspire debate.

CELEP invites films of multiple genres spanning documentary, narrative and animated, ranging from short up to 90 min. long. If the film is not in English, please insert English captions.

CELEP seeks films that:

- are made by individuals or groups who are identify themselves as pastoralist and/or
- bring pastoralists' perspectives on their life and livelihood system and/or
- sensitively portray issues faced within pastoralist societies and/or
- Address broader issues faced in regions where pastoralism is practised and/or
- reflect the role of mobility in pastoralism
